KATONG CONNECTS!

A TERMLY NEWSLETTER

FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

Dear Parents and Guardians,

With the start of Term 4, we celebrate the growth and spirit our students have shown. We are delighted to share with you that Vanessa Gabrielle Teo Mei Jin (Sec 4/2) and Aarya Sridharth Shiva (Pri 5/3) received the Singapore Silent Heroes Award 2025, in recognition of their spirit of compassion, selflessness and empathy. Vanessa is also a proud recipient of the Lee Kuan Yew Exemplary Student Award 2025.

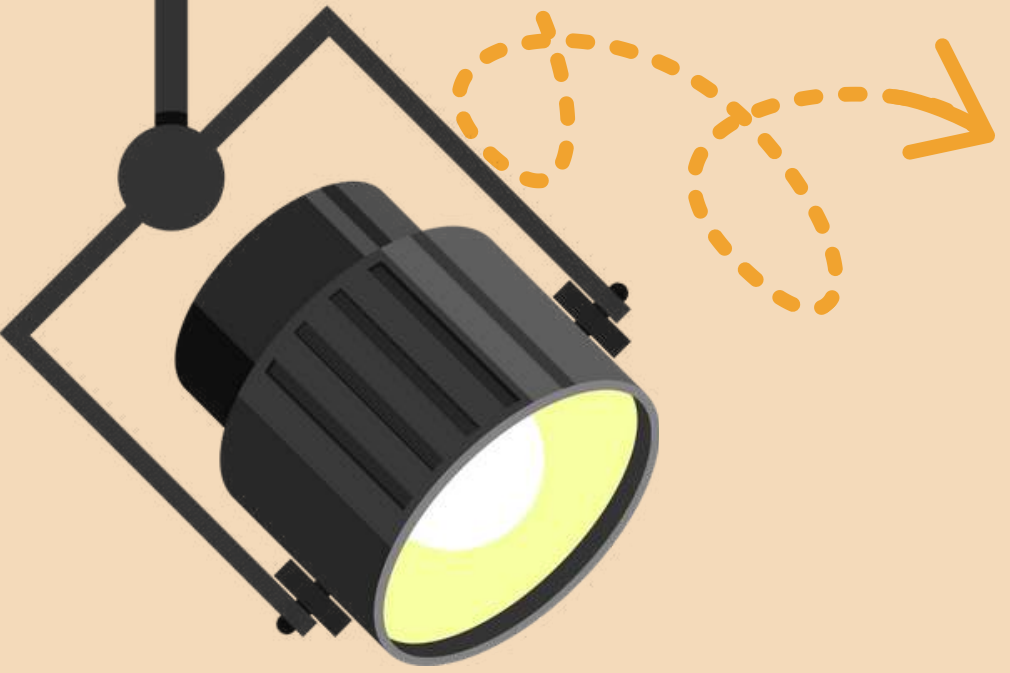

Our focus on values continues, with our students showing in simple but meaningful ways how honesty and responsibility can shine through their daily actions. Thank you for nurturing these values at home. With your partnership, we look forward to helping our students finish the year with pride and confidence.

Mdm Ng Puey Koon
Principal

SCHOOL-HOME COLLABORATION

4 WAYS TO NURTURE INTEGRITY IN OUR STUDENTS IN SCHOOL AND AT HOME

Be a Role Model and Share Values

Students learn by watching the adults around them. It is crucial to demonstrate integrity in our own words and actions, like following rules or keeping promises.

Encourage Honesty and Openness

Make telling the truth a core value at home. Encourage students to be open about their mistakes. Reward honest behaviour with positive reinforcement.

Encourage Listening to The "Inner Voice"

Help students develop their "inner voice" by teaching them to pause, reflect and consider how a situation feels to them. If something feels wrong or uncomfortable, it might be a sign to stop and think.

Use Stories and Scenarios

Share simple stories with moral lessons or discuss hypothetical "What If?" scenarios to help students differentiate right from wrong, understand ethical dilemmas and learn to make thoughtful, honest choices.
